[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
San Francisco, Calif., April 21.—The Southern Pacific railroad succeeded in getting trains running in on the coast division last night. The trains are now running with comparative regularity. Eastern people need have little solicitude for their friends who were here at the time of the earthquake. It may be safely asserted that few, if any, of such people have been killed or injured. The casualties with few exceptions were confined to the occupants of cheap lodging houses.

Was Under Control
San Francisco, Calif., April 21.—By 8:30 a. m. the fire on the water front north of the ferry was under control.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
San Francisco, Calif., April 21, 12 m.—There is no fire within three blocks of the ferry.

Another Million
Washington, April 21.—The house of representatives today passed resolution appropriating an additional million dollars for the San Francisco sufferers.

BURYING THE DEAD: IMMENSE TRENCHES BEING USED NOW

San Francisco, April 21.—It is still difficult to estimate the number of dead. The bodies are scattered all over the city, and are being buried in trenches; in some instances fifteen bodies in one ditch. The ferry boats are running on schedule time. There is an immense crowd around the depot. The committee from all towns across the Bay are urging the people to leave Frisco and go with them to their homes; the authorities won't let them take any baggage with them. The fire is still burning fiercely up to the north but the wind has gone down making it less dangerous.

ORDER COMING OUT OF THE CHAOS NOW

San Francisco, Calif., April 21.—According to the latest reports the ferry building is safe from destruction. It is believed the fire near Lombard street and the freight slips will be checked. In other directions the fire is now completely under control.

Have Headquarters
Mayor Schmitz and General Funston have established headquarters at Fort Mason. The records in the hall of records have been unharmed which will prevent any tangle in the titles.

Hungry Fed.
Dr. Vorsanger, chairman of the committee to feed the hungry reported everything possible was done to provide food for the public and that there was not a hungry soul in San Francisco last night. There is no trouble in distributing food nor in procuring it.

MORE MILLIONS TO BE GIVEN BY UNCLE SAM

dollars more for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers. It is given by members of congress that the appropriation will be made.

MAN SHOT FOR NOT FIGHTING THE FIRE

General Order

Milwaukee, Wis., April 20.—As the newspapers throughout the country are receiving and publishing all information from Pacific coast that it is possible to get, the Postal Telegraph-Cable company will devote its entire facilities to the handling of important telegrams for the relief of San Francisco sufferers and for its patrons and will not issue any further bulletins unless some important change occurs in the existing conditions. Owing to the destruction of San Francisco and the consequent scattering of its people it is not almost impossible to find individuals in San Francisco to whom telegrams are addressed and all telegrams are still subjected to indefinite delay. This company is sparing no money or effort to re-establish effective telegraph service. We have arranged to open an office at Market street Ferry building, San Francisco, where all telegrams for that city will be sent. It is impossible to make deliveries but we will placard the city, announcing the opening of this office and requesting any one expecting telegrams to inquire there for them. The same course will be pursued at Oakland with all telegrams which cannot be delivered there.

H. G. McGILL, Supt.

Carry Relief Free
The United States Express Co. will carry free of charge contributions of money and clothing for the sufferers of San Francisco and neighboring towns when such shipments are consigned to city officials or regular charitable organizations.

No Danger
Indianapolis, Ind., April 21.—John P. Newson, of the geological and mining department of Stanford university, who was in the city yesterday on his way to Chicago, thence west, said that there was practically no danger that a tidal wave would complete the San Francisco disaster.

Even though there was an immense tidal wave, it would be impossible for a great enough volume of water to pass through the opening of the Golden Gate to do serious damage," said Professor Newson. "The opening there is only about a mile wide, and that opens into the large Bay of San Francisco, where any volume of water coming through the gates would be spread over a large area of surface. The only damage possible would be to the lower part of the city, where the ruin is complete anyhow."

Professor Newson said that the most plausible theory of the earthquake was that the disturbance was along one of the old fault lines that run west of San Francisco, Palo Alto and San Jose, the direct line of the disaster.

Message Delayed Sixty Hours
Word was received at ten o'clock last evening from Harry F. Brown, son of E. Tracy Brown of this city, who is engineer at Oakland. The message was filed at the Oakland office on Wednesday, April 18. Mr. Brown sends word that he escaped injury.

Alderman Brockhaus Anxious
G. Weidemann, a brother-in-law of Alderman Carl Brockhaus, lived with his family above his Dry-House at 148 Third street, San Francisco. It was in this locality that the earthquake did the most considerable damage. Another brother-in-law, Gustave Fricke, lived above his paint and wallpaper establishment at 1107 McAllister street. Neither have been heard from.

Up till half past two o'clock this afternoon F. F. Nicholson, who it is thought was stopping at the Grand or Palace hotels, San Francisco, when the earthquake occurred, had not been heard from.

Remainder Will Very Likely Use Subscription Lists to Raise Money for Earthquake and Fire Sufferers.

By subscription rather than by collection the various churches of the city will raise money for the San Francisco earthquake and fire sufferers. In the Congregational and St. Mary's Catholic church regular relief collections are planned, but in the majority funds will be raised by subscription papers. The Congregational collection will be taken tomorrow morning. At St. Mary's church Rev. W. A. Goebel will announce a collection for the following Sunday morning. This committee appointed at the mass meeting last night sent appeals to the pastors today, requesting that an accompanying subscription list be announced and circulated among the members of the church. The matter of raising funds is to be taken up at a meeting of the Trinity Episcopal church vestry tonight and also at a meeting of the voting members of St. Paul's German Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

MISS ESCHLIN SAFE; HOMEROUND BOUND, MAY ARRIVE SUNDAY

Message Sent By Harry Brown At Oakland Arrives Sixty Hours Late

The Misses Julia and Edith Eschlin are safe and on their way home. They will probably arrive in Chicago Sunday morning and in Janesville tomorrow night. Instead of stopping at the Brooklyn hotel, San Francisco, Tuesday night as they originally planned to do, they went to Oakland so as to take the train out of that city early Wednesday morning. It is believed that they succeeded in doing this. At any rate, from some point along the route homeward, they telegraphed their brother-in-law, L. D. Brode, assuring him that they were safe. At the same time they undoubtedly tried to communicate with Janesville but the message is probably delayed. This morning S. B. Eschlin received a telegram from Mr. Brode conveying the good tidings. The friends belonging to the young ladies have at last reached home.

Word was received at ten o'clock last evening from Harry F. Brown, son of E. Tracy Brown of this city, who is engineer at Oakland. The message was filed at the Oakland office on Wednesday, April 18. Mr. Brown sends word that he escaped injury.

LORD ALVERSTON COMING TO VISIT

Chief Justice of England Planning a Trip to the United States This Summer.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, April 21.—Lord Alverston, lord chief justice of England, is planning to go to the United States this summer to deliver an address before the annual meeting of the American bar association. Lord Alverston has frequently crossed the Atlantic, is personally acquainted with most of the leading public men of the United States, and may even be said to have had domestic ties with the United States through the marriage of his only son (who died in 1902) to the daughter of Sir Francis Evans, and his American wife, daughter of Samuel Stevens of New York.

Though Lord Alverston is now past sixty years of age, he looks much younger, having been all his life a lover of exercise and outdoor sports. He is a familiar figure in London society, an able art critic, fine whip and accomplished musician.

RICH WOMAN OF ENGLAND IS 92

BARONESS BURDETT-COUTTS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

WORLD'S WEALTHIEST LADY

Manner of Inheriting Her Fortune An Old But Nevertheless Interesting Story.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, April 21.—The Baroness Burdett-Coutts, distinguished as possessing more wealth than any other private woman in the world, will be ninety-two years old the coming week. The venerable peeress has been quite ill this winter and her recovery has been so slow as to alarm her family and friends. Despite her age and infirmities she continues to take an active interest in business affairs and also in the countless charities and philanthropies which have made her name famous throughout the United Kingdom. The baroness is particularly loved by the Whitechapel costermongers in the east end, and has done much to improve the care of the clever, quick donkeys which the hawkers drive through the most crowded streets of London at a quick pace.

How her colossal fortune came to Lady Burdett-Coutts, and why it should have come to her instead of to her elder sister, is an old story but none the less interesting. Her father was Sir Francis Burdett, a well-known member of parliament, and the last person to be imprisoned in the Tower of London for political views. Sir Francis married Sophia, a daughter of Thomas Coutts, the London banker, who was therefore the grandfather of both Lady Burdett-Coutts and Mrs. Money-Coutts. Old Tom Coutts, whose own mother had been a scullery maid of the name of Elizabeth Starky, after losing his first wife, the mother of Sophia Burdett, contracted a second marriage with Miss Harriet Mellon, a well-known actress, to whom on dying he bequeathed his entire fortune, making no provision for his daughter, or for his grandchildren.

Some time after his demise the widowed Mrs. Coutts, the ex-actress, married the Duke of St. Albans. She seems, however, to have resented the manner in which she was treated by the family of her second husband. At her death it was found that she had left every penny of her colossal fortune to Angela Burdett, her step-granddaughter, then a girl of twenty-three, who had become a great favorite of hers. The duchess bequeathed this fortune to Angela Burdett on the understanding that she should assume the name of Coutts in addition to her own, and that in the event of her death without issue it should go to one of her older sisters, Clara Burdett. It is by virtue of this will that the bulk of the fortune of Lady Burdett-Coutts will at her death go, not to her American-born husband, but to her nephew, Francis Burdett-Money-Coutts, a man now about fifty-four years of age.

FRENCH FLEET AT ANNAPOLIS

HERE TO ATTEND BURIAL OF JOHN PAUL JONES.

NATIONAL SALUTES GIVEN

Officers of Squadron Will Go to Washington Monday to Lunch With President Roosevelt.

Annapolis, Md., April 21.—Rear-Admiral Campion, in command of the French fleet, came to participate in next week's ceremonies attending the burial of the remains of Paul Jones, has set foot on American soil and been received with honors due his rank and mission by Admiral Sands, superintendent of the naval academy, and the representatives of the state of Maryland. The joint fleet of American and French war vessels is lying in Annapolis roads, forming the most brilliant naval spectacle seen in these waters since the visit last November of the British fleet under command of Prince Louis of Battenberg.

When the warships dropped anchor national salutes of twenty-one guns were first exchanged between the Marcellines and the Alabama, flagships of Admiral Campion and Admiral Davis respectively, and then admiral salutes of thirteen guns. Shortly afterward the visitors saluted Admiral Sands, superintendent of the naval academy, with thirteen guns, and these were returned by the shore battery of the academy.

Admiral Campion and his staff came ashore in a launch and landed at the boathouse wharf of the academy. Admiral Sands greeted the visitors on the wharf, and a company of marines saluted at a flourish of trumpets from the field music. Admiral Campion was driven around the parade ground, stopping a few minutes at the residence of Admiral Sands.

The French squadron consists of the first-class cruisers Admiral Aube, Conde, and Marcellines. Rear Admiral Bradford's cruiser squadron which acted as escort consists of the flagship Olympia, the Cleveland, Denver and Des Moines. The second division of the squadron, in command of Rear Admiral Davis, consists of the battleships Alabama, Illinois, Iowa and Indiana.

The officers of the French squadron will go to Washington Monday to lunch with the president, to whom they will be presented by M. Jusserand, the French ambassador. They will return to Annapolis Tuesday for the memorial services. The following day they will go to Washington again to be the guests of the secretary of the navy at luncheon, of the secretary of war in the afternoon at a cavalry drill at Fort Myer, and of the French ambassador in the evening at a state dinner at the embassy. The next day they will pay a visit to Mt. Vernon.

Niagara Falls, Ont., April 21.—Residents on both sides of the border joined in the welcome to Prince Arthur of Connaught, who spent this forenoon in viewing Niagara Falls and places of interest in the vicinity. The prince and party with an escort made the sightseeing trip in carriages, alighting several times to get a better view of the scenic wonders. Everywhere his royal highness appeared he was greeted by a large concourse of citizens, who joined in the cordial reception extended to him. The railway station and vicinity were profusely decorated. The royal visitor departed this afternoon for Toronto by way of Hamilton.

Monday the formal welcome and reception will take place and in the evening there will be a state dinner at the Government house. During the remaining days of his stay in Toronto the prince will be entertained at luncheon or dinner by several of the large clubs and military organizations and will be taken for rides about the city. EXPERIMENTS ON
THE CONDITIONS

TO STUDY WISCONSIN SOILS

THIS YEAR.

THE EXHAUSTED FIELDS

State University Experiment Station to Carry On Investigation of Land.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., April 21.—As a part of the general plan of the University of Wisconsin agricultural experiment station for the study of the various types of soils of the state, a number of experimental fields are being selected on which to carry on the investigation of methods of increasing the productivity of the soil. The experimentally sandy soil of the northeastern part of the state, and the peaty soils of the newly organized drainage districts in the Wisconsin River Valley and in the northern part of the state, will be the first to be studied.

Plans have just been completed for three of these experimental fields.

One of these is near Sparta in the extremely sandy soil district; a second field is on the marsh land near

Mather, southwest of Grand Rapids; and the third at Phillips, in Price county.

Prof. A. R. Whitson, of the department of soils and drainage of the University of Wisconsin college of agriculture is in charge of the work.

It is believed that these experimental fields will afford an opportunity of gaining a great deal of practical knowledge which will be of service in aiding the farmer to improve the methods of management of his soils so that the fertility will be retained and the productivity increased.

To improve Sandy Soil.

The field selected at Sparta has been cultivated for about forty years, and as a result its fertility has been greatly reduced. No fertilizer has ever been used upon the field, and very little clover has been grown.

This field is probably among the very poorest of the light, sandy soils found in the state. The yield of rye for the past few years has been only between six and eight bushels an acre, and last year the entire crop of hay grown on eight acres amounted to only two loads. On account of the extreme uniformity of its soil and the convenient location, the field is well suited to the study of methods to improve such soils.

This Sparta field, which is eighteen acres in area, will be laid out in two parts. On one section a test will be made of the various green crops adapted to fertilizing such land, together with crude rock phosphate and potash for fertilizers, to develop humus. By these green crops, most of which are legumes, nitrogen will be gathered from the air, and in this way it is hoped to develop in the soil an amount of organic matter well supplied with nitrogen phosphoric acid, and potash, the three most essential elements of plant growth, in such a form that they will readily become available for other crops to duce good yields. These and other experiments will be tried on the two experimental fields in the Wisconsin river valley. As a large part of these lands are being put on the market and sold to farmers from outside of the state, the experimental station desires to give all possible aid in making a success of the cultivation of these peat lands.

Will Investigate Exhausted Soils.

In connection with this experimental work field study will be made of the effects of continuous cropping, especially in relation to the tendency which various kinds of soils show to become exhausted in one element alone. Last year the experimental station carried on preliminary work on the lack of fertility shown on farms in the western part of Wisconsin where all the fertilizer produced on the farm had been applied to the tobacco field, and the fertilization of the remaining part of the cultivated land had been neglected.

In some of these fields a great lack of available phosphorus was shown.

The most extended study of this problem of partially exhausted soils will be carried on this year. Investigation will also be made of the changes which take place in the amount of nitrogen in the soil of fields that have been cropped for a number of years.

The field experiments which farmers in this district have been making for several years will be considered and the results of the experiments will be collected and systematized.

To Improve Peat Lands.

Other experiments on recently drained peat lands in the Wisconsin

River Valley constitute another part of the work. Within the last few years about 350,000 acres of peat lands have been organized into drainage districts, largely in the Wisconsin valley. The value of this land for agricultural purposes after it is reclaimed is a matter of some uncertainty. In many cases one or two crops have greatly reduced the fertility of the soil and the yields thereafter have been unprofitably small.

During the past two years the University of Wisconsin experiment station has been carrying on an investigation of the fertilizing of this peaty soil at an experimental field near Marquette. It has been clearly shown by this investigation that both phosphoric acid and potash will be required in order to make this soil productive.

NOT HEREDITARY

Many people, even until the present

Nothing is further from the truth—

Baldness is caused by the onslaught itself beneath the scalp and attacks the roots of the hair—causing it to lose its life and fall out.

This organism cannot be got rid of

WILL REPEAT PLAY

FOR CALIFORNIANS

Manager Myers Donates Use of Theatre Tonight for "Reformation of Luther."

At the Myers theatre last evening a large audience witnessed the second presentation of "The Story of the Reformation." The attendance tonight should tax the capacity of the playhouse. For, during progress of the play, a spontaneous movement both behind and before the curtain was inaugurated to have the performance repeated tonight and the proceeds sent to the victims of the California catastrophe. Judge J. W. Sale addressed the assembled spectators during one of the intermissions and by a rising vote they registered their approval of this movement. Manager

Myers generously agreed to donate the use of the playhouse. The same moderate prices for tickets as have prevalled will obtain this evening.

Much improvement over the premier night performance was evident in the work of the amateur players last evening. The rough edges had been rounded off and the chorus work as well as the acting of the principals showed a surprising improvement.

Aside from the generous offer to repeat the performance, St. Peter's Evangelical English Lutheran church, the choir members from the other

Protestant churches, and the local talent deserve great credit for this meritorious and highly interesting performance. No aid has been solicited, except in the sale of tickets, and the play has been presented entirely on its own merits. Last evening Miss Ledia C. Heller, who has directed the class work, was presented with a handsome gold cross and chain by her appreciative pupils.

est day in the week" at your the least profitable day—which may be quite another thing—by effective store-advertising.

The San Francisco horror continues to increase.

Thus far the cyclone cellar has hidden most of the county candidates for office. They will soon begin to come to the surface, however.

Charity begins at home. Contributions for the needy in California will do more than hundreds of dollars sent to buy plug hats for the heathen.

Frank Gilbert of Madison has come out for attorney general on the republican ticket. Well, Gilbert knows the law and that is one recommendation.

Congressman Cooper understands that he has a fight on his hands and is making his plans accordingly. How he will explain his vote on the Philippine bill will be interesting to note.

Babcock says there is nothing to the announcement he will not be a candidate for congress. Mahoney's appearance in the field at his opponent does not alarm him in the least.

One by one the aspirants are coming out of their holes and seeking the gaze of the public, hoping that the spring warmth will aid their feeble frames to grow into mighty "hop-vines."

While Janesville is several hundred miles from the scene of the earthquake many residents and former residents are in the ill-fated city and the sympathy of the community goes out to those who are anxious about their loved ones.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

The rise and fall of the self-assumed prophet Alexander Dowie, will be recorded in history as among the startling achievements of modern times. Dr. Dowie, now broken in health and tottering on the verge of mental and physical collapse, has been a remarkable man, and whatever criticisms may be offered, the fact remains that he possessed the ability to win thousands to his peculiar faith.

His disciples may not have been well balanced, but they were religious fanatics, and the country is full of this class of people. Many of them come from churches with which they are not satisfied. It is easier for these people to believe in a man who claims to be inspired than to believe in an intangible spirit, and so when a Dowie comes to them, and in a spirit of authority assumes the role of a prophet, faith is enlisted and they become willing and faithful followers.

It may be said of Dowie that he is not sincere, but that would be a difficult charge to prove. He has certainly not shown a mercenary spirit, for while millions of dollars' worth of property has passed through his hands, old age finds him penniless and dependent.

A lack of sincerity is not one of the failings of the fanatic. He is usually too sincere and this is frequently the cause of his undoing.

Dowie was most intensely earnest.

He invested energy of mind and body to the limit and his heart was so thoroughly in the work that confidence was freely inspired.

His followers were so zealous in the new faith that they were willing to sacrifice both time and property.

and Zion City stands today as a monument to this peculiar faith.

With the fall of Dowie comes the fall of Dowelism, for his power can not be delegated to another. The old prophet Elijah was translated but the new prophet, Dowie, is wasting away with disease from which he claimed to be immune, and his followers are shocked at his inability to throw it off.

Zion City will continue to exist, but not as a sacred shrine for deluded worshippers. Just what will happen to these followers without a leader may not be readily forecasted, but they will scatter and doubtless become victims to some other fanatical creed.

It is a popular notion in the minds of many good people that when a man's heart is right that he must be right all the way through, but that is a mistaken notion. A man may be right at heart and inspired by the best motives and intentions and yet be so mentally unbalanced as to be a menace to society.

He may be so honest in his religious faith as to be fit for translation at any time, and yet so weak that the world would be benefited by his removal.

It is an open question as to whether religious leaders like Dowie are a blessing or a curse to their generation. While it is doubtless true that the spirits of dead Dowies are now in heaven, it is also true that the living disciples of this peculiar faith are a good deal disturbed, and the shaking up which has come to them with contribute nothing to stability of character or purpose.

The mission of the church is not to save people from perdition, but to save them in the present life, and teach them how to live. When a church collapses of its own weight, as Dowelism has done, it means shattered hopes and ruin.

The spirit of unrest which has made it possible for Dowie and other fanatical leaders in the religious world, to gain a following during the past decade, is incident to the day and age.

The doctrine is taught, and largely endorsed that every man is a law unto himself, in the realm of thought and belief, as well as in the world of action. Men and women like independence and the faith of the fathers is no longer considered sacred.

The same air of socialistic independence pervades the religious world, that is so prevalent just now in the business and political world, and the result is a lot of religious orphans, away from the old home without a guardian.

Church membership, like party affiliation, is largely a matter of inheritance. The best reason that the most of us can give for any particular religious creed is the fact that we are staying by the church of our fathers and mothers, and it is a mighty good reason after all. Better by far than to be drifting about like a will-o-the-wisp without shelter or a church home.

The average church member knows but little of his own church creed.

He is willing to take his theology on trust. It was good enough for the fathers and it is good enough for him.

He is so busy with the struggle for existence that the common fact experiences of life hold his emotional nature in check and he is saved from becoming a fanatic or a dreamer.

The great mass of humanity have always, toiled under direction, and they always will. This is a blessing and not a misfortune. These conditions are just as true of theology and this is not a misfortune. The lubaby of the mother and the prayer at the cradle side, which made its imprint on the mind of the child, furnishes the best foundation for theology which the world has ever known, and happy is the child who adopts his mother's creed of whatever faith, and loyally defends it through life.

Dowelism and socialism, as well as all other "isms" will die for lack of support when the religion of common sense is more thoroughly endorsed and practiced.

MR. CHAS. DEVINS says that he just recently consulted Dr. Richards, Dentist, and had a very sore tooth extracted.

The best of it was "that it didn't hurt him one bit."

People don't say such things unless it means something.

If they experienced the least pain they wouldn't be backward about saying so.

The facts are that Dr. Richards receives just such assurances from hundreds of his patients.

The reason is "he is actually doing PAINLESS DENTISTRY" in Jansville.

INTERURBAN MAY BE ABSORBED BY BIG SYNDICATE

Rockford & Interurban Company Said to Be Negotiating with Eastern Capitalists.

It is reported that a deal of unusual interest is being negotiated between the owners of the Rockford & Interurban system, of which the Rockford, Beloit & Jansville line is a branch, and an eastern syndicate. This is said to be on the point of closing, though the officials of the R. & I. line refuse to give out any information. The deal is believed to be a completion of the centralization of the electric railway systems of northern Illinois cities and also the interurban systems making the network in there and in southern Wisconsin. Under one management it would be possible to operate the lines more economically, and also give a better service in that there would be no conflict in time schedules, and that passengers would be assured almost direct connections from one point on the lines to the other. The culmination of the negotiations was quickened by the purchase on the part of the R. & I. of the R. B. & J.

They will petition the council for a special permit.

FISHING FOR CLAMS IN OLD ROCK RIVER

New Owners of Pearl Button Factory Have Built Three Flatboats for That Purpose.

This is the time of the year when river clams are feeding and the new owners of the Jansville Pearl Button factory have six men, manning three scows, at work fishing in Rock River. An examination of the shells has proven that though they are not of the highest quality a good button can be produced therefrom. The manner in which the clams are caught is most interesting. Each boat is equipped with two long gas pipes on which are attached a dozen or more short lines with hooks. These hooks are made of wire and are three-pronged. When these are drawn along over the river-bottom the clams, which lie open when feeding, grasp them and hold. The pipe is drawn up and seldom does a hook come up without a clam.

A former alderman residing on Quality Hill will not purchase an auto this season. But he intends to have one of those $50 Gabriel horns attached to his front porch so that he may not be entirely lost in the noise, and may adopt if necessary retaliatory measures if he is too often ignored or neglected by his automobile-billing neighbors. When Norman Carl and his party were out on the Milton road several miles from town and three from the nearest telephone last evening the gasoline supply for their touring car suddenly gave out. After a long walk across the fields a message was finally sent to the garage to hurry one of the other Wintons to the scene with a cargo of fuel. Just before this happened there was a runaway and a young girl was thrown out of a buggy. She was unhurt and the auto party succeeded in capturing the horse.

The Platter Is Passe.

"Fish and game platters have almost become obsolete. The magnificent fish and game plates, decorated with signed paintings by the foremost artists of Europe, are no longer sold in sets, accompanied by a platter, but are sold by the dozen," said a dealer in fine chinaware.

"Why is that?"
"Oh," said the dealer, "because it is not customary now to carve on the table at a dinner of any importance. Nearly everything is served a la Russe, meats, etc., being carved by the butler. There is, therefore, no place for a platter."

This effects a modest saving of several hundred dollars in many cases, as this specially signed china costs scarcely less than solid gold.

THREE-FOURTHS OF CITY GONE

Old Fire Line at Vanness Avenue Is Maintained, Leaving Remainder of Residence Section Comparatively Free from Further Onslaught of the Scourge.

San Francisco, April 21.—Plunged into absolute darkness Friday night at 1 o'clock, San Francisco had not seen the conclusion of the devastating work of the conflagration.

The fire that started at Nob-Hill and worked its way to the north beach section, sweeping that section clean of buildings, was later veered around by a fierce wind and made its way southward to the immense sea wall sheds and grain warehouses. The flames were heading directly for the immense Ferry building, the terminal point of all central, overland and local trains of the Southern Pacific road. The darkness and the wind, which at times amounted to a gale, added fresh terrors to the situation.

The authorities considered conditions so grave that it was decided to swear in immediately 1,000 special police men armed with rifles, furnished by the federal government. In addition to this force, companies of the national guard arrived from many interior points.

It was reported that 35 white men had been shot and killed while attempting to work their way into the ruins of the United States subtreasury on Commercial street. Two Chinese were shot and killed on Market street for refusing to obey orders of the solidiers.

Six hundred laborers from the ocean shore arrived Friday night to look

The Chronicle Building.

after the city's sewers to prevent an epidemic, and the United railways commenced its efforts to clean up some of the streets.

The reports of babes being born in the refugees' camps were frequently received. Five women became mothers in Golden Gate park.

The main remaining fire was confined to east of Vanness avenue and north of Union street, but was burning its way to the shore.

Late Friday afternoon the police broke open every saloon, and corner grocery in the so-called districts and poured all malt and spirituous liquors into the gutters.

Water Front in Flames.

At seven o'clock Friday night the fire was raging over 50 acres of the water front lying between Bay street and the end of Meigs and Fisherman's wharf. To the eastward it extended down to the sea wall, but had not reached the piers, which lie a quarter of a mile toward the east.

The cannery and warehouses of the Central California Canneries company, together with 20,000 cases of canned fruit, was totally destroyed, as also was the Simpson and other lumber companies' yards.

The flames had reached the tanks of the San Francisco Gas company, which had previously been pumped out, and were burning the ends of the grain sheds, five in number, which extend further out toward the point.

Pull of Smoke.

Flame and smoke hid from view the vessels that lay off shore, vainly attempting to check the fire. No water was available, except from the water side and it was not until almost dark that the department was able to turn its attention to this point.

At six o'clock it was believed that the fire had been checked at Vanness avenue and Filbert. The buildings on a high slope between Vanness and Polk, Union and Filbert streets were blazing fiercely, fanned by a high wind, but the blocks were so squarely set that the fire appeared to have but a slender chance of crossing Vanness at this point.

Mayor Schmitz, who directed operations at this point, conferred with the military authorities and decided that it was not necessary to dynamite the buildings on the west side of Vanness.
This would seem to assure the safety of what remains of the western addition. It is the only point of exposure to which this section of the city was subjected. As much of the fire certainly as could be collected was assembled to make a stand at this point.

City of Misery.
San Francisco, April 21.—The fire is under control, with the probability that one quarter of the city lying west of Franklin street and known as the western addition, northward to the Presidio will be saved. The stand made at Vanness avenue was generally successful, the flames crossing that avenue to the west in but few places.
The strongest fire at noon to-day was toward north Beach, east of Vanness avenue, but will be controlled.

Take Out 75 Dead.
The three-story lodging house at Fifth and Minna streets collapsed and over 75 dead bodies have been taken out. There are at least 50 other bodies exposed. This building was one of the first to take fire on Fifth street. At least 100 people were lost in the Cosmopolitan on Fourth street.

One Hotel Is Running.
The only building standing between Mission, Howard, East and Stewart streets is the San Pablo hotel, which is occupied and running.

The shot tower at First and Howard streets is gone. This landmark was built 40 years ago.

The Risdon iron works is partially destroyed.
The Great Western Smelting and Refining works escaped damage, also the Mutual Electric Light works with slight damage to the American Rubber company and the Vietagas Engine company.

Folger Bros. coffee and spice house is also uninjured and the firm is giving away large quantities of bread and milk.

Many are dropping dead from the heat and from suffocation. Over 150 people are reported lost in the Brunswick hotel, Seventh and Mission streets.

HUNGER EQUALIZES MANKIND

Whites Stand Behind Chinese, Awaiting Turn to Secure Bread.

San Francisco, April 21.—Although effort of the various relief committees Friday was bent to appease the gnawing hunger of the destitute thousands —efforts that were in a large measure entirely successful—there are in this city many persons either without sufficient food or entirely without it. The government officials took charge of every grocery store in the city still standing and gave out foodstuffs to all those who were hungry.

Bread lines were established at Fillmore and Turk streets, at Golden Gate park and at the Presidio, and every person who stood in line was given a whole loaf.

A large supply of milk came from Oakland in the morning, and this was distributed to women and the children wherever they were found in need. A great deal of this milk was used for the exhausted women who arrived at the ferry throughout the day and proved a great boon to them.

There were no disorders when the hungry thousands were told to form a line and receive their bread and canned goods. All were content to wait their turn. Silk-hatted men followed good-naturedly behind Chinese and took their leaves from the same hand.

Soup kitchens were established in the streets of the unburned section, no fires whatever being allowed indoors, and many hungry persons were fed.
Bread and such other foodstuffs as may be at hand will be distributed at the various stations twice a day.

Fire Destroys Philippine Town.

Manila, April 21.—Fire has swept the town of Marikina, in Rizal province.
Many thousands of persons are homeless, and starving. Two thousand dwellings are in ruins. The government is rushing assistance to the sufferers. Fire also destroyed Pasig, near the town of Cebu. Two hundred dwellings were burned and many persons are homeless.

bring home troops, is ashore on a reef near this port and it is expected will be a total wreck. The crew of the this the total of American cotton is 2,

Story of Champion Gardner

Amateur Billiard Premier Won Title For First
Time In 1902—Sporting Gossip—Frank Favour,
the New Bowling Champion—Prize Ring Talk.

By WILLIE WEST.
Edward Gardner of Passaic, N. J., did not undergo a new experience when in Chicago he recently won the amateur championship of this country at billiards.

Mr. Gardner has been champion before. Four years ago, in a field of five, he finished first in the fourteen inch amateur championship tournament in Brooklyn. He went through that tournament without a defeat, just as he did in this year's tournament in Chicago, but the field in the Chicago tournament was much more representative than the one that assembled in Brooklyn in 1902. It included experts from the Atlantic coast, the Pacific coast and the middle west. Nor is there much doubt that it represented a group of players of higher quality than when Gardner won the championship before.

The averages show that.
Gardner therefore, though one of the oldest players in the Chicago tournament if not the oldest, has kept pace with the amateur game. Calvin Demarest, as promising an amateur as has come to the front in many years, was in the Chicago tournament, and yet the veteran Gardner defeated him.
There was some of the fastest playing ever done in an amateur tournament, yet Gardner was able to keep up with it and take the measure of all his opponents.

The successful representative of the Acquanock club is not the close play-

Great position that when shot ball would pocket directly. Cue ball and ball kept both straight life by side action and roll.

EDWARD GARDNER AND ONE OF HIS SHOTS.

er, not the nurse or finished ball line player that several of his fellow amateurs are. He can do and does first-class ball work in practice, but in competition his playing is likely to widen out. He is a strong all around player, however—that is, his game is strong enough in all departments for him to strike a profitable balance. He is a determined safety player and often wins by keeping the other man from making points. He is a billiard tactician—a general.

From a field of over 850 players Frank Favour of Oshkosh, Wis., won the sixth national championship of the American bowling congress, held at Louisville, Ky., with a total of 609 pins, the highest figures yet recorded with the sixteen pound ball. In making this record Favour used a three fingered ball slightly loaded on one side, producing a big curve. On his spares he used an ordinary ball. Favour, who is a player of good physique, won the recent Wisconsin state championship, in which he had an average of 206 for nine games.

There is the big end of $20,000 waiting for the Nelson-Nolan combine in Los Angeles. The Mexican fighter, Herrera, is the other part of the sketch.
And Nolan has insisted on getting the "champion's" bit, $4,000 besides. Talk about a high place of finance!

Nelson beat Herrera before, got the decision over him in Butte on July 4, 1904, twenty rounds, and again, same place, same number of rounds, on Dec.
5, same year. So it ought to be easy picking again, and it will be. The greaser is no boy on the burning deck.
He's pretty yellow in spots, and it isn't from eating oranges either.

With no captain, no coach, no games scheduled and no money in the treasury, the Northwestern university baseball team possesses all the elements necessary for a thoroughly amateur nine.

Paupers Outlive Millionaires.

Many paupers have lived to be 100 years old; but there is not a single record of a millionaire attaining that age.

Olympic Stars.

American Athletes Should Win Majority of Classic Events at Athens.

The team of athletes sent by America to compete in the Olympic games at Athens should return with a large majority of the prizes offered by the Greek officials. No country has ever before sent out so formidable an array of athletic talent, and if the physical condition of the men remains good after the sea voyage and change of climate they should establish many new records.

Of the men picked for the 100 meter dash W. A. Schick is without doubt the fastest of the four having done 9.45 seconds for the 100 repeatedly. He is

W. A. SCHICK OF YALE, GREAT HAIT.

a big, strong, husky youth, who can run as well abroad as he can in this country, as was proved when he went to England on the Yale-Harvard team several years ago and ran his race in 9.45 in spite of the fact that he had been sick all morning before the race and almost had to be assisted to the track.

For the 400 meters there will be peerless sextets from this country—viz.
Harry Hillman, F. R. Moulton, E. B.
Parsons, Paul Pilgrim, Dan Mayers and Schick.

Hillman is well known in the east and it is hardly necessary to recount his many qualifications, for his record is familiar to every one who takes the least notice of athletic events. For the benefit of the "sophers" it may be said that he has won championships from 100 yards to 600 yards and is the holder of many records, among them the 300 yard low hurdle record of 55.35 and the 440 yard low hurdle record of 54.35 seconds.

Hillman has won the quarter mile championship on the flat and is the holder of the world's indoor record for 440, his time being 50.25 seconds.

The 800 meter run will be well taken care of by Howard Valentine, J. D.
Lightbody of Chicago, Charles Bacon, Paul Pilgrim and Eli B. Parsons of Yale.

On form Parsons is the greatest half mile runner in the country. He holds the intercollegiate record of 1 minute 55 seconds for the half and the indoor record of 1 minute 14 seconds for 600 yards.

For the past two years Parsons has won the half mile run at all the college meets and when in condition has never

F. A. BORNAMANN, AMERICAN DIVING CHAMPION.

been beaten. Last year at Buffalo he ran a half mile as a member of the Yale relay team, in the world's indoor record time of 1 minute 54.35 seconds.

In the long runs, from a mile or up, England will probably make the best showing.

In the swimming and diving events America's quartet, Schwartz and F. A.
Bornamann of Chicago and C. M. Daniels and C. W. Spencer of New York, should do well against the English and Australians. Daniels is America's greatest swimmer, and Bornamann is the American champion in high and fancy diving.

Success has crowned our efforts of untiring endeavor, and we present to the public with a confidence never before held by any other medicine, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35

EXPOSES CHINATOWN TO GAZE OF PEOPLE

Underground Passages Are Laid Bare by Fire, Showing Labyrinths Long Hidden from View.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 21.—"Strange is the scene where San Francisco's Chinatown stood," says W. W. Overton, who reached Los Angeles among the refugees. "No heap of smoking ruins marks the site of the wooden warrens where the slant-eyed men of the Orient dwelt in thousands. The place is pitted with deep holes and seared with dark passageways, from whose depths come smoke wreaths. All the wood has gone and the winds are screaking the ashes."

"Men, white men, never knew the depth of Chinatown's underground city," says Mr. Overton. "They often talked of these subterranean runways.
And many of them had gone beneath the street levels, two or three stories.
But now that Chinatown has been unmasked, for the destroyed buildings were only a mask, men from the hillside have looked on where its inner secrets lay. In places they can see passages 100 feet deep."

The fire swept this Mongolian section clean. It left no shred of the painted wooden fabric. It ate down to the bare ground and this lies stark, for the breezes have taken away the light ashes. Joss' houses and mission schools, grocery stores and opium dens, gambling hells and theaters—all of them went. The buildings blazed up like tissue paper lanterns when the sputtering candles touch their sides.

"From this place I, following the fire, saw hundreds of fright-crazed yellow men flee. In their arms they bore their opium pipes, their money bags, their silk and their children. Beside them ran the baggy-troused women, and some of them hobbled painfully."

"These were the men and women of the surface. Far beneath the street levels in those cellars and passageways were other lives. Women who never saw the day from their darkened prisons and blinking jailors were caught like rats in a huge trap. Their very bones were eaten by the flames."

"And now there remain only the holes. They pit the hillside like a multitude of ground swallow nests. They show depths which the police never knew. The secrets of those burrows will never be known, for into them the hungry fire first sifted its red coals and then licked eagerly in tongues of creeping flames, finally obliterating everything except the earth itself."

Heart Weakness

The action of the heart depends upon the heart nerves and muscles. When from any cause they become weak or exhausted, and fail to furnish sufficient power, the heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats; and in its effort to keep up its work, causes pain and distress, such as smothering spells, short breath, fainting, pain around heart, arm and shoulders. The circulation is impeded, and the entire system suffers from lack of nourishment.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure makes a heart strong and vigorous by strengthening these nerves and muscles.

"I had palpitation and pain around my heart, and the doctors said it was incurable. I don't believe it now, for after taking six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, three bottles of the Nerve and three boxes of the Nerve and Liver Pills I am entirely cured, and feel better than I have for five years, and it is all due to these remedies. I want you to know that your medicine cured me. It relieved me from the first dose, and I kept right on till the pain in my chest was gone, and I kept on feeling better even after I quit taking it." JOHN H. SHERMAN.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

much pain and discomfort, which can, however be cured,

FINAL ROUND-UP OF WILD HORSES

Last Great Corraling of Bronchoes On Northwestern Plains Will Begin Tomorrow.

Seattle, Wash., April 21.—The last great round-up of wild horses in the northwest will begin tomorrow. The round-up will take place in the Columbia river basin in eastern Washington and will be participated in by several hundred horsemen. Thousands of these wild horses are roaming the plains. Some of them have been branded, but the most of them have never felt the sting of the iron. The horses will be driven into corrals, located at convenient points on the prairie, and each of the owners will have to cut out his own. The unbranded horses will be sold at auction and the proceeds divided pro rata. The herds running wild on the eastern Washington plains include thousands of well-bred horses. The original herds were of common cayuses, but stockmen and settlers have for years been turning loose thoroughbreds and highly-bred farm horses to roam with the wild animals. The result has been that the class of horses has been raised rapidly and it is believed hundreds of horses will be rounded up that will be fit for any work when broken.

SAN JACINTO DAY IN SAN ANTONIO

Great Spring Carnival Came to Close Today—Texas Society At Washington Celebrates.

San Antonio, Texas, April 21.—The San Antonio spring carnival came to a glorious close today with a monster celebration of the anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto, by which Texas achieved her independence. The entire city was garbed in rainbow colors and thousands of visitors thronged the streets. Patriotic exercises with addresses by noted speakers were held at Milam square park. The tomb of Ben Milam, one of the illustrious heroes of the war of independence, was decorated with magnificent floral tributes by the school children of San Antonio.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—The Texas society of Washington, one of the strongest of the state social organizations in the national capital, have made elaborate arrangements for a celebration this evening of the San Jacinto anniversary. Over one thousand invitations have been issued for the exercises, which take place in Odd Fellows' hall. Representative Morris Sheppard and others will speak on subjects appropriate to the occasion, and an interesting musical program will be carried out.

QUAINT HOCKTIDE CELEBRATION HELD

Pennies Collected From People of London Today And Woman Are Kissed By Tithe-men.

London, April 21.—Following an immemorial custom the little town of Hungerford in Berkshire, today held its annual "Hocktide" celebration. The origin of the custom is lost in antiquity. The chief feature is the ceremony of collecting "common pennies" from the male residents of the village. The "horn," bequeathed by John O'Gaunt, is sounded at eight o'clock on the morning of every April 21 outside the Corn Exchange to summon the townsfolk. The town crier then starts out on a mission to announce that all good folk must pay a tithe of one penny. They are sitting in pomp and majesty in the Three Swans inn, with a constable at their head, proclaiming the tithe-men, who go forth to collect the pennies and to kiss every woman who crosses their path.

PASSING OF THE CAVALRY CARBINE

War Department Has Nearly Completed Issue of New Rifles to Horse-men and Infantry.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—The war department has about completed the issue of new rifles to the troops in the United States. This marks the passing of the carbine, so long a weapon of the cavalry branch of the service. Both infantry and cavalry are now being supplied with the same model of rifle, a modification of the model of 1903. This is about six inches shorter than the Krag and about two inches longer than the carbine now being discarded by the cavalry. For the present the rifles are being used with the red bayonet, but later they will be called in, when the new bayonet recently decided upon will be substituted. The issue to the troops in the Philippines will follow, and when that has been done all the soldiers of the United States army will be armed alike.

MILAN EXPOSITION FORMALLY OPENED

Event in Honor of the Completion of the Simplon Tunnel—Victor Emmanuel There.

Milan, April 21.—The Milan exposition in honor of the completion of the Simplon tunnel, was formally opened today by King Victor Emmanuel. The city was en fete and the event was made the occasion for brilliant ceremonies. The exhibition, which will continue through the summer, is the most pretentious affair ever undertaken in Italy. The exhibits comprise not only the latest improvements in machinery, transportation, industries, and the application of science to the needs of trade, but also devote a large amount of space to exhibits of a sociological character. Special attention is given to the problem of housing factory employees and improving their social condition. For the first time in the history of international exhibitions the problem of aerial navigation is seriously treated, and the application of motive power to land and marine navigation includes the most thorough exhibits of pleasure and industrial automobiles and of motor boats yet shown. France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Great Britain, Japan, Turkey, Belgium and several South American countries are represented among the exhibitors. Of the great nations of the world the United States alone is without adequate representation. The failure of the United States to accept the invitation to take part has caused considerable disappointment and surprise, especially in view of Italy's liberality in her participation in both the Chicago and St. Louis expositions.

Disfranchisement.

The Khond of Madras is as inseparable from his light battleaxe as the Phil from his bow and arrow. It was quite amusing when the Prince and Princess, expressed a desire to examine one of these instruments, and a specimen was presented to them, to note the childish anxiety betrayed by the owner lest his weapon should not be restored to him.—Calcutta Englishman.

OKLAHOMA OPENING TO BE CELEBRATED

Clubs of 'Eighty-niners Celebrate Anniversary of Day When Religion Was Given to the Whites.

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 21.—In all parts of the territory where clubs of "89ers" exist big celebrations will be held tomorrow of the seventeenth anniversary of the opening of Oklahoma to settlement. The chief celebrations will be held in this city and in Kingfisher. Programs have been arranged which will vividly portray the trials and tribulations which had to be borne by the homesteaders who made the mad rush into Oklahoma for homes. None other than original settlers will be allowed to make speeches and of this number are ex-Governor Tom Ferguson, ex-Congressman Dennis Flynn, Senator Sidney Clarke, Territorial Secretary "Bill" Grimes and others.

STATE LEADERS TO THE FORE

Substantial Men of California Gather at Oakland to Devise Ways and Means to Start Era of Activity for Metropolis.

Oakland, Cal., April 21.—Oakland is a vast city of refuge and intelligence office for the innumerable thousands of survivors who have managed to escape from San Francisco. A great section of the world-famous cosmopolitan population of the metropolis has taken every available space that offers itself in the city and shelter and food are being provided for all, though the relief committee is taxed to the limit of its powers.

The tremendous and almost hopeless task has been begun of trying to reunite scattered families, of getting trace of lost ones, of determining whether the missing are dead or still safe somewhere in the great and tangled mass of stricken refugees that spreads itself over all the country through a thousand highways on this side of the bay and in the San Mateo county to the south of San Francisco. Messages are stacked yards high in all the telegraph offices waiting to be sent throughout the world.

Takes Place of Metropolis.

This city has temporarily taken the place of San Francisco as the metropolis of the Pacific coast, and here the finance kings, the bankers and merchants of the San Francisco of yesterday are gathering and conferring and getting into shape the first plans for the rebuilding of the burned city and preventing a widespread financial panic that, in the first part of the awful catastrophe, seemed certain. In the face of enormous loss and the complete wiping out of the commercial life of the empire city of the Pacific, the leaders of trade and commerce here are cheerful and confident that all will be well in the end. The governor, the bank commissioners, the architects, the insurance offices and the representatives of many of the large commercial enterprises are now in the city arranging offices and clearing the way for the smooth adjustment of affairs that will lighten the heavy hand of disaster that has leveled everything in common ruin.
